

Use this form to provide proof of your identity for your passport application if you:

- have resided outside of NZ for the majority of your life, and
- cannot find a witness with a valid NZ passport.

Hei mua i te tononga Before you apply

Witness requirements

The witness must:

- be aged 16 years or over
- have a valid New Zealand passport
- not be a relative or partner of the applicant
- not live at the same address as the applicant.

The witness must have known the applicant (you or your child):

- for more than 1 year, or
- since birth (if the applicant is under 12 months old).

If you cannot find a witness who has a valid New Zealand passport

If you cannot find a witness with a valid New Zealand passport, you can use a witness from one of the following professions:

- a lawyer
- a police officer
- a teacher
- a kaumatua
- a minister of religion, or
- a registered medical professional.

The alternative witness must still meet all the other standard criteria. These include:

- being over 16
- having known the applicant for at least 12 months
- not being the applicant's relative or partner
- not living at applicant's address.

Photo requirements

If you have already submitted your passport application and passport photo, we will insert your submitted passport photo on page 7.

If you have not submitted your passport application, you must provide 2 identical passport-style photos. The photos need to be signed by the witness named on page 6 of this application.

The photos must be:

- of yourself
- less than 6 months old
- in colour
- clear, sharp and in focus.

The photos must show:

- your head and shoulders
- your face looking directly at the camera
- your eyes open and clearly visible — not covered by hair or sunglasses
- your face in a neutral expression, not smiling or frowning and with your mouth closed
- a plain and neutral background.

Prescription glasses are permitted as long as your eyes are still visible.

Do not staple, glue or paperclip photos to the application form as this may damage them.

Making a statutory declaration

On pages 3 and 4, you will need to make a statutory declaration that you cannot find a witness with a valid NZ passport.

A statutory declaration is a written statement declaring something to be true in the presence of an authorised witness. It is an offence to give any altered, false, incomplete or misleading information or to make a false statement or declaration.

People authorised to take a statutory declaration

The statutory declaration on pages 3 to 4 must be signed and dated in front of someone who has the authority to take statutory declarations. They must also sign to confirm that you have signed the declaration in front of them.

The person who takes your statutory declaration must be one of the following:

- Member of Parliament
- Lawyer
- Justice of the Peace
- Registered Legal Executive (Fellow of NZILE)
- Government Officer authorised to take statutory declarations.

You may need to make an appointment with your witness to sign this declaration in front of them.

13. Photo identification

If the applicant has already submitted their application, the Passport Office will supply a photo below.

If the applicant has not submitted their application yet, the applicant needs to provide you with 2 identical photos. On the back of 1 of the photos, you must:

- write the full name of the applicant
- sign your own name
- write the date signed.

This must be handwritten by you (the witness), not by the applicant.

Failure to correctly witness 1 of the photos will delay the applicant's passport application.
